Children's theatre at the Powerhouse

More than a hundred children and parents enjoyed the production of C.S. Lewis's magical "The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe" at the Powerhouse on Sunday, Dec. 5. The Traveling Lantern Theatre Company produced the two-actor play, featuring Sherry Allen and Rhys Greene, while their audience responded with both rapt attention and animated participation. The event was sponsored by the Children's Program Committee of the Del Mar Foundation.
