All the World's a Play

A day in the life of England's greatest playwright!

Meet William Shakespeare...an eager but harried young playwright who is trying to write, direct, cast, and bring dramatic life to his half-finished plays: Hamlet, Julius Caesar, and Romeo & Juliet.

As Will has fun with with actors who forget their lines, insistent producers, garish set designers, and always the "words, words, words" we learn about his life, his language, and his legacy.

The price for a Traveling Lantern show is $395.00 to $495.00

You will receive 10% off if two shows are booked on the same day, making shows $445.50 each. Three shows on the same day go down to $395.00 each. These discounts can be shared by nearby organizations, and there are no additional costs of any kind.

SUMMER 2020

Legends and Myths from Mount Olympus

Whimsical and daring adventures from the ancient civilization by the sea.

From their protected perch on Mount Olympus, the gods of ancient Greece spin their magic and subterfuge into fantastic landscapes while they conjure cunning exploits for the humans they choose to meddle with far below.

Children become the mountains and the wind as they watch Icarus and Daedalus fly free on wax wings, help tell the story as they witness Ceyx and Alcyone's love morph into fantasy so they can stay together for all time, and stave off evil with bravery and courage as Perseus battles the snake-headed Medusa and ultimately turns her into stone.

Sherlock Holmes Takes the Case

Solve a mystery with the world's most famous detective!

Something's amiss, and now "the game's afoot!" for the brilliant scientist and criminologist, Mr. Sherlock Holmes.

Along with his trusted companion, Dr. Watson (played by a child volunteer), Holmes will follow the clues and solve the mystery with the audience's help.
